ABOUT RACHEL

Rachel Ngom went from food stamps and a negative $400 bank balance to building a seven-figure online education company by age 34. She is the host of the Christian Entrepreneurs Rise Up podcast (560+ episodes), founder of the Called to Build Academy and Called to Build Summit, and is currently enrolled in the Global School of Supernatural Ministry and Global Awakening Theological Seminary.

In 2023, God called Rachel to lay down most of her million-dollar coaching business to pursue full-time ministry. She has lived on three continents, got married in Morocco, and now lives in Orlando, FL. Her husband operates a car rental company and egg farm in Senegal, providing jobs to the local community, and trains horses at their equestrian property in Orlando.
